

April 4, 2018

The special meeting of the Urbana City Council was called to order by Mayor Mitch McDonough at 6 pm Wednesday, April 4, 2018. Council members present were Jackie Michael, Josh Holthaus and Richard Wendel. Absent were Jamie Duart and Mike Smith. The Pledge of the Allegiance was said.

John Baumhoefner presented the topo map of the Uptown Urbana and the Views site. They are hoping to start having informational meetings in the Urbana Community Center towards the end of April. Please keep an eye out for updates.

An open discussion was had amongst council members on their vision of future developments and how involved they felt the City needed to be. It was decided that the City is willing to use all tools available by the State of Iowa to help expand developments throughout the community. The council is ready to partner with anyone willing to invest in Urbana. No formal action was taken during this meeting.
